3. Description of incident (customer's words)

I was away in the Blue Mountains for the weekend and when I got home on Sunday night some of my things were missing. My jewellery box was open on the bedroom floor and my laptop and camera were gone from the desk. The front door was locked when I got home. I think I may have left the balcony sliding door unlocked, but I'm not 100% sure. I am on level 1 and the balcony is next to the common courtyard. I reported it to the police on the Monday morning. I didn't lodge the insurance claim straight away because I was hoping the building's CCTV would help get the items back, but the strata manager hasn't been able to give me the footage yet.
